Robert Barnes on 6/20/17 was ask to pull out of a job and start setting up and weld a job that it had pulled for him. This was a hot job that needed to ship that day. When it came back five minute later he was still welding the same job. When I ask him why, he started yelling at me dragging the F-bomb and sticking his finger in my face. He was real combative and argumentative. In his speech, he kept repeating himself and made no sense of what he was trying to say. As it walk back to my desk Ted & Tim Lyle witness his aggressive disruptive behavior. By he followed me back to my desk and continued to be aggressive, and combative toward Ted and Tim Lyle. As he was talking loud he was repetitive and made no sense of what he was saying. We manager I felt he was not acting right and went to get check out by a doctor.
